

GDPR Awareness

GDPR—The General Data Protection Regulations

The introduction of the General Data Protection Regulations by the EU entails a radical shift in the way companies approach data privacy. Introduced in the Official Journal of the EU in April 2016, EU 2016/679, 'on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data', is concerned with protecting the rights of natural persons in relation to the processing of their personal data.

For companies, this may mean a cultural shift to ensure everyone is aware of data privacy. This may also require process changes to meet the regulation requirements.

Designed for

Any individual or any employee from any size organisation who needs to be aware of data privacy.

We are offering this as an e-learning program, which the delegate can access from any web-connected machine.

What Does The Course Cover?

This e-learning course provides an excellent awareness of the requirements of the GDPR, and includes the following topics:

- The basis and reasoning for the new regulation and the scope of its' application.
- Identification of the key participants in the processing of personal data and discussion of their responsibilities.
- Discussion of the key principles and conditions that determine the lawful basis for processing.
- Outline of the key regulatory aspects that will affect organisations processing data, and the associated risks and opportunities.
- Identification of the steps to achieve compliance with the regulations and creating a privacy-aware corporate culture.

Syllabus Coverage

- Introduction to the GDPR
- Key Concepts and Principles
- Data Subjects
  - - Rights
  - - Consents
- Accountability
- Governance
- Other key aspects

This training is certified by APMG International, the most reputed global accreditation and examination institute.

Course Objectives

The key objectives of this course are:

- Provide Delegates with an overall awareness of the impact of the GDPR to their own operations and that of their organisation.
- To ensure delegates respect the data in their charge to ensure any processing is both ethical and lawful.